MINISTER FOR EDUCATION AND EARLY LEARNING
MINISTER FOR WESTERN SYDNEY

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL FLAG DAY 2024

This Australian National Flag Day, we celebrate 123 years since our country's flag was flown for the very first time.

Australians come together on September 3 to acknowledge and celebrate the anniversary of our flag.

More than a century since the Australian flag came into being, it remains a proud expression of our Australian identity and represents our nation on the world stage.

The Australian flag brings us together, acknowledging the past and looking with hope to the future.

Congratulations to Flag Day Australia and the Australian National Flag Association (NSW) for their work to acknowledge the role of our flag and Flag Day in our nation's story.
